

Secret Intelligence Service

On Psychopathic Sadism Room 15

Olga Rubenskaya

At this terrible scene - Kiev, September 1941. Babi Yar.

The mother during a second before death cuddles her baby. A man in an SS uniform, who would kill her and the child during the passing of a second, or two - not German. He Ukrainian - more precisely, from Zhitomir. He served in the Division "Galicia", and in 1943 participated in the Aynzatts groups.

Where are the details? Almost from himself. This photo, guerrillas seized, together with documents and dog tags. Seized when searching his body. Monstrous picture will be one of the most eloquent witnesses of Nazi victims at the Nuremberg trials.

But the most striking, that here this photo was stored among personal belongings together with family card, letter home lay this. Carefully stored - a souvenir photo. Maybe even for the family album. Proudly children and grandchildren in their old age show; behold, they say, as I have "fought valiantly" for...what?

Several years ago I happened to read in a good translation from the Polish book about Volyn massacre and all of the Bandera Movement . One of the chapters - an unbelievable cruelty of this book - that struck me the most. The excerpts were full versions of Bandera letters to their relatives, friends and fellow soldiers. And then writes a "man" of the beautiful future (without zhidiv and Muscovites), and disputes about the intimate and dreams about her with brother recalls a favorite verse of a poet about nature and the house, and then without going the same words he describes the rape and killing of girls - with the same emotions, almost sincerely.

There letters are terrible. The Nazis, though - you know that they are doing evil. But excusing themselves by appeal to the idea of the necessity of war, by order. Even diehard Nazis did subconsciously subscript looking for an excuse.

These - never. "Evil" as a concept for them did not exist. Kill a Jew, a Pole and a Russian - for them, good always.

Stepan Bandera in 1941, coming to the city and is readying "lads" to "work" admonishing them in these words: "Only the Ukraine, her will and way. Fairest matter to us. If you ask me how many Ukrainians can and need to kill for the sake of the will and the Ukraine, I will answer only - what they can and need to do. "

What of the direct and ideological descendants of those who were then over Bandera?

But the Nazi soldiers, and even after seeing the camp, SS officers wrote about the "inhuman hatred" in the eyes of some.

Today we are again seeing those same eyes and which create their owners. Look but do not want to see.

Believe, it will be fine. Hatred will warm you much better than our gas. And it's not warm, so you can go out and start a fire from a neighbor and warm up by the fire of his guttering hut, raping his woman and be amused by killing his children. You scum.

We pay the highest price. Jews confronted with Nazism - cherish, nurture and preserve the memory of this evil. They drive their children to museums, concentration camps and show all. Do not spare the child's psyche. To painfully to tears imprinted in memory, in every cell of the body, what Nazism is and why it must be destroyed.

And we have at hand what was born evil terror - stubborn, cruel, inhuman and more tenacious.

But we, prefer to forget, to erase it all from memory. "Not to spoil relations," we do not open museums and memorials; we do not write the book, do not release films, do not give the words that remember the old.

SecretIntelligenceService.org

(C-I) (C-III) (C-V)

Room 15 On Psychopathy

Session III. Psychopathic Sadism

Adversitate. Custodi. Per Verum